VIRTUAL CIO

Focus on your business, not your IT:
Bulldog IT's Virtual CIO is dedicated account manager for your organization who knows your IT inside and out.

With Bulldog IT, you get more than enterprise-level IT services. Virtual CIOs provide full-fledged consultation services to assist you with complex IT decisions when it's time to expand, upgrade, or integrate new technologies to improve your business: experience expert advice and expert service while saving money.

Our Team

For years we made technology decisions based mostly on the financial impact they had on the company. In lean times it was necessary, but now we're regretting most of those decisions as we're getting what we paid for. The quality of the services that Bulldog is able to provide greatly exceeds all of our expectations. Every dollar spent on Bulldog services has had a return far greater than any of the other IT services we'd previously paid for (including our internal IT staff).
